

Shipping & Mailing

Outbound and Inbound Package Management

SendSuite® Live

Manage parcel shipping from any desktop.

Your mail center is being asked to do more with fewer resources. Keeping costs down is critical, while improving service levels throughout the organization is required. Without clear rules in place, shippers often revert to an ad hoc approach that results in decreased efficiency and unnecessary expense. Solving these challenges can be a daunting task for even the most organized of companies.

Eliminate inefficiencies with a single solution.

SendSuite Live brings the power of mail center shipping right to your desktop. It provides access to the most current parcel shipping rates and services through a browser-based approach. Now anyone can make ideal shipping choices based on cost and delivery service, while adhering to the business rules set by the company. Plus, it's easy to use so everyone can ship smarter.
