5. DEVELOPER PORTAL; BULK POSTAGE ACCOUNT; POSTAL RATES.

- a) You will be prompted to set up your account in Developer Portal with passwords and other access information to enable you to use the Services, including establishing accounts to track shipping activities, finance and maintain postage funds, activities, balances, and/or other handling and service fees. If you are enabling End Users to access the Services through a postage account (“Bulk Postage Account”), you may finance your account with financing options indicated as available on the Developer Portal, which may change from time to time, with or without notice to you. If you elect to use any PBI financing postage product, including for example those offered and made available by The Pitney Bowes Bank, Inc. (“PB Bank”), postage payments will be advanced to you for payment to the USPS on your behalf, subject to repayment by you to the lender under the terms of the postage financing product and billed separately by the lender providing the postage financing product. You will be subject to the rights and obligations set forth in any applicable financing agreement between you and the applicable lender. Upon termination of your postage account, remaining funds therein will be refunded to you in a manner and by terms to be agreed upon by you and PBI.
- b) Your PB Shipping API account name, password and/or access information is confidential information and should be used solely by you to access your account and use the Services. - d) MAILING & SHIPPING ADJUSTMENT TRANSACTIONS. If it determined that, in your and/or an End User’s use of the Services, a mailing or shipping transaction did not contain sufficient postage, PBI may automatically deduct the amount of the unpaid or short-paid transaction from your postage account. You will be able to review these adjustments in your postage account history and reports. If one or more of these payments cannot be collected from your account due to lack of funds, you may be charged a surcharge and your account may be suspended. If your account is suspended, you will be notified that your access to the Services has been temporarily suspended until all overdue balances have been paid in full. PBI reserves the right to retain the services of a collection agency to recover the amount due for outstanding balances.

6. ACCOUNT DISPUTES

You will not request access to or receive information about an account that is not yours. PBI determines who owns an account based on the information that has been provided to us with respect to the account, and if multiple people or entities are identified, then we will rely on the contact information listed for that account to determine account ownership. We do not serve as an intermediary to settle or negotiate with disparate parties regarding disputes over who owns an account.

7. FEES; PAYMENT TERMS

- a) Monthly fees associated with your subscription and use of the Services are set forth in the Developer Portal and/or your Individual Agreement. Unless otherwise agreed upon by you and PBI, all fees are stated in and will be paid

- b) Your fees do not include any taxes due. You will pay any and all federal, state, and local sales, use, property, excise, internet-related, and other applicable taxes imposed on or with respect to this Agreement for the Services provided hereunder. Taxes, except for those based on PBI's net income, assessed against or required to be collected in connection with this Agreement, will be set forth at the point of purchase in the Developer Portal.

8. USPS REGULATIONS

If you use the Services to print postage or send parcels with the USPS, you must comply with all USPS regulations applicable to the use of the Services. If you: (a) use your account in a fraudulent or unlawful manner; (b) fail to exercise sufficient control over your account to prevent fraudulent or unlawful use; (c) cause or allow the account to be utilized outside the United States without the prior written authorization of the Manager of Retail Systems and Equipment, U.S. Postal Service, Washington DC 20260; or (d) otherwise fail to abide by the provisions of postal regulations and these Terms and Conditions regarding care and use of your account, then your account may be cancelled. You acknowledge and agree that your account shall be closed and your ability to use the Services terminated by us for any of the reasons described above or upon demand by the USPS. You agree that any use of the Services to fraudulently deprive the USPS of revenue, including, for example, the use of a label for which a request for postage refund has been submitted subsequent to the submission, can cause you to be subject to civil and criminal penalties applicable to fraud and/or false claims against the United States. For the avoidance of doubt, PBI will support electronic postage refund requests to the extent, and only to the extent, permitted and provided for by the USPS, and any electronic request for postage refund not permitted and/or enabled by the USPS is otherwise ineligible for any refunds. The submission of a false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or claim can result in imprisonment for up to five (5) years and a fine of up to $10,000 (18 U.S.C. 1001). In addition, a civil penalty of up to $5,000 and an additional assessment of twice the amount falsely claimed may be imposed (31 U.S.C. 3802). The mailing of matter bearing a fraudulent imprint is an example of a violation of these statutes.

The USPS has granted us a license as a PC postage vendor to create a shared postage evidencing system that users will use to dispense postage. As a user of the Services, you must understand and acknowledge that authorization to use the Services is granted by the USPS. You accept responsibility for control and use of the Services and agree to abide by all rules and regulations governing its use. The USPS may deny use of or revoke authorization to use a postage evidencing system in the event of (i) failure to comply with rules and regulations (ii) submission of false or fictitious information, (iii) entering of a series of unpaid or short-paid mail pieces and/or packages in the mail stream, (iv) use of the system for any illegal scheme or enterprise, (v) use of the system outside the customs territory of the United States, and (vi) possession of a decertified system. We reserve the right to record and maintain your postage transaction records and make them available to the USPS or its agent when notified and required to do so.

USPS Privacy Statement: Your information will be used to facilitate the purchase of U.S. Postal Service (USPS) postage and fulfill transactional reporting requirements for USPS postage systems. Collection is authorized by 39 U.S.C. 401, 403, and 404. Providing the information is voluntary, but if not provided, your transaction may not be processed.
