

Six ways to send smarter.

SendPro® Enterprise works for you every day.

Trust the leader.

Since 1920, Pitney Bowes has been a trusted and reliable industry leader. We handle billions of parcels, packages and pieces of mail per year, helping businesses manage costs and streamline operations in all of their shipping and mailing processes.

Streamline processes.

Save time and money when you batch-process bulk shipments, send Certified Mail® with greater speed and print shipping labels and First-Class postage on demand.

Save on sending, every time.

SendPro Enterprise instantly identifies the lowest-available shipping rates across major carriers for savings up to 75 percent. You also save 3 cents per piece of First-Class Mail.

Gain real-time visibility.

Manage all your shipping and mailing expenses from a single dashboard. Enjoy seamless integration with your accounting and back-office systems.

Achieve complete control.

Leverage rich analytics in SendPro Enterprise to:

- Understand all sending activity.
- Implement controls to ensure best practices.
- Reduce overspend across the organization.
