The technology behind
every important delivery.

Mail experts. Predictable results.

Focus on your business, we'll handle the mail.

Mailing grows more complex by the day. Postal costs keep rising, labor costs continue to increase, and USPS® requirements keep changing. What doesn't change? Your need to meet delivery expectations and budget projections.

That's where mail experts come in.

We are Pitney Bowes Presort Services

Consistent, reliable delivery at the optimal postage rate is what we do. That's how we've improved the customer mailing experience for more than 105 years. We do the same for:

First-Class Mail® letters and flats

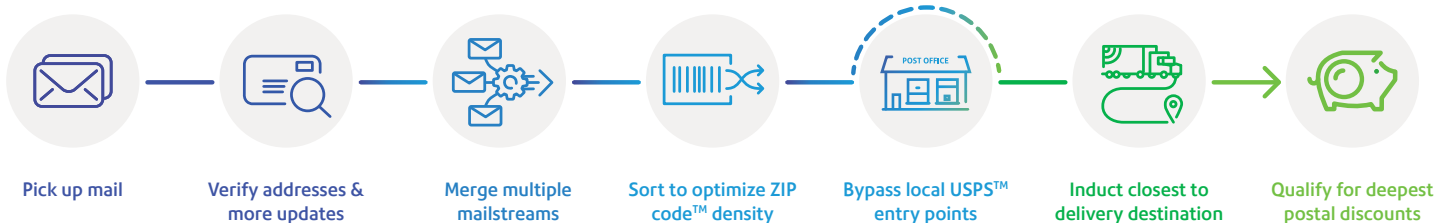

Marketing Mail® letters, flats and parcels

Bound Printed Matter parcels

What we do

Save your business money

Commingling your mail with other mailers qualifies you for more per-piece savings. We help you take advantage of USPS® Promotions to maximize those savings.

Improve mail deliverability

Leveraging our operations and logistics network, we presort your mail to the finest ZIP and induct it closer to its final destination—eliminating unnecessary USPS® handling.
