SendPro[®]+

The better way to ship and mail.

Send confidently with the industry's simplest, all-in-one technology for shipping and mailing. Introducing SendPro[®]+, the latest sending innovation from the Craftsmen of Commerce, Pitney Bowes.

SendPro®+ is designed to simplify and speed up all of your multicarrier shipping and mailing, right from your office.

Send with confidence, no matter what you ship.

- Choose the ideal sending option with discounted rates across multiple carriers (USPS®, FedEx®, and UPS®).
- Weigh packages with the integrated 15lb. scale.
- Print shipping labels directly from the device.
- Print discounted postage and seal envelopes at up to 65 letters per minute.

Without taking trips to the post office or other retail stores.

Send, track and manage savings with ease.

- The easy-to-use, integrated address book works seamlessly across carriers and accurately verifies addresses before you send.
- Automatically track packages and view consolidated history in one report.
- Take control by accessing precise shipping history that gives users complete spend information.

The industry's most versatile shipping solution.

- Our exclusive, integrated apps enable you to track shipping and mailing activity anytime, anywhere.
- Access SendPro® Online, our powerful software solution, from any PC to ship and mail on the go.
- Automatic carrier and postal updates help ensure that you always pay the right rate.

“One trend having a huge impact on employee engagement involves our new app-centered world. Some 71% of employees want the company they work for to provide them with the same level of technology they use in their personal lives.”
