The market for legal services is changing fast. You need to capitalize on every opportunity to control costs.

Say goodbye to lost or misplaced documents.

Office workers spend between one to one-and-a-half hours per week looking for documents or files.

Don't settle.

Firms face intense competition from non-traditional providers. Flat revenues and growing customer demands call for greater efficiency, predictability and cost-effectiveness.

How you handle simple day-to-day tasks can impact your bottom-line profits. This is especially true in parcel and mail management, where firms waste valuable time without seeing results. Why overspend? Smart solutions from Pitney Bowes make it easy to automate workflow, manage carrier spend and satisfy clients.

- Spend less for shipping
- Eliminate time-consuming manual processes
- Expedite delivery
- Maintain chain of custody
- Take advantage of USPS® technology
- Charge back clients accurately and efficiently

Take control.

Manage parcels and document delivery more efficiently with our suite of integrated solutions designed for firms of all sizes.

- SendSuite® Live:

Ship confidently. Compete successfully.

Contracts. Case files. Discovery documents. Court filings. Your firm ships hundreds of time-sensitive, confidential documents and parcels every day. Your profitability and professional reputation rest on your ability to deliver them securely, on time, every time.

Bring a new level of efficiency, accountability and control to your firm with SendSuite Live. This web-based multi-carrier solution replaces multiple standalone systems with a single, user-friendly platform that reduces costs, streamlines operations and improves customer service. SendSuite also integrates seamlessly with Pitney Bowes mail finishing solutions for one-stop management of all your carrier and mail expenses.

Discover cost-saving alternatives to carrier services such as next-day or two-day shipping. SendSuite Live displays the latest rates so you can identify the most competitive carriers and delivery options based on your delivery objective. With precise door-to-door tracking, it helps you retain clients, develop new business and grow your bottom line.

Save up to 75% on shipping with our systematic carrier service optimization.

Put an end to the paper chase. Get incoming deliveries into the right hands the first time, every time.

Information is power.

Your practice depends on precision. Critical documents must be filed on time. Sensitive files must reach the right person. The chain of custody must be documented. Confidentiality can't be compromised.

SendSuite Tracking Solutions pick up where carriers leave off, automating and managing the flow of documents through the entire life cycle of a pending matter. By combining barcode technology and handheld devices, it tracks the physical location of every file. It records each time a file changes hands, to whom it was delivered, and when and where they signed for it.

SendSuite Tracking Solutions reduce errors due to manual processes. It automatically notifies the addressee that the package is en route, and provides real-time visibility so you can respond quickly and accurately to any inquiries. Electronic logging at every step documents chain-of-custody compliance, and ensures that the package always gets to the right recipient.

Maximize efficiency.

- Speed delivery of critical documents to the right recipient.
- Promptly respond to attorneys' urgent need for files.
- Facilitate sharing of case files, even across multiple locations.

Improve accountability.

- Quickly locate accountable parcels and documents.
- Document the complete chain of custody electronically.
- Verify correct delivery with electronic signatures.
- Ensure confidentiality of highly sensitive documents.

Increase visibility.

- Accurately track parcels and documents in real time.
- Quickly resolve delivery errors and delays.
- Maintain an audit trail.
- View the complete chain of custody.

Track anything you can barcode.

Use SendSuite Tracking Solutions to catalog and protect expensive moveable assets, like laptops, peripherals, communications equipment and even client files. Because it's designed for multi-location deployment, you can consolidate and standardize records from every site.

- Know the exact location and status of valuable firm assets and case files.
- Identify the current user, when and where the file/asset was signed out or delivered.
- Enforce timely return of assets.
- Eliminate disruptions due to unavailability.
- Spend less on replacing missing assets.
- Quickly generate reports for managing assets and their associated costs.
